VISITING COLONELS

Distinguished Men Aboard the Hancock.

There are three veteran colonels on board the Hancock, one in command of the troops, and two more as passengers. One only has seen service in the Philippines, and Col. J. M. Lee is one of the few men in the army who, since 1898, has fought in the three campaigns in Cuba, in the Philippines and in China. The officers are Col. Sumner H. Lincoln of the Tenth, Col. C. B. Hall of the Twentieth, and Col. Lee of the Thirtieth. All saw service in the Civil War. Col. Lee is one of the most distinguished field officers in the army, and it has been said of him that he has been in his career in more campaigns and seen more service than perhaps any other officer. While with Gen. Crook and Gen. Miles, he mixed it up with the Indians of the West and Southwest, and was immediately concerned with the capture of more chiefs than perhaps a single other army man, and certainly became more familiar with the Indians than most others. Col. Lee saw service with his regiment in Cuba, was on staff duty and with it at Manila, and when Col. Liscum took the Ninth to China, being ordered there because the men were veterans and close to the point of debarkation when the call came, the then Major Lee went north with his regiment. In the fight before Tientsin, when the gallant Liscum fell early in the battle, Major Lee took charge of the two battalions and fought them until the end came at 8 o'clock at night. Since that time he has had service in the United States until his promotion to command of his present regiment, and now is on his way to take up his second tour of duty in the far East. The regiment is in the small islands to the south of Luzon, and has a comfortable billet, for the people are fairly peaceful.

"From all reports," said Col. Lee last evening, "the situation is much improved in the islands. Samar seems to be the only place where the insurgents have much of an organization. Altogether, what I heard in the United States has been to the effect that the outlook is very much better. My old regiment, the Ninth, has been ordered home. It is the only one which has seen service in all three campaigns. Its work has been very hard and its loss—in the absence of statistics I cannot give exact figures—must have been at least twice that of any other regiment in the service. There is hardly more than the old non-commissioned officers in the regiment, the ranks being filled with recruits. The regiment suffered heavily from the fever at Santiago, after having had a hard fight; then it was given hard work in northern Luzon, and there was a long list of casualties in China, so that the men were thinned out before they had the hard knocks in Samar, where many more were lost.

"As to the outlook in the East, I cannot express an opinion, but from what I saw it will take a little more acquaintance before the Philippines become attached to us. They have not been accustomed to our methods and differ from us in every important point of training and mental habit. They have not been accustomed to such open dealing, but they are becoming more favorable to the Americans, and I believe they will soon learn that their condition will be bettered."

Col. Lincoln, who is in command of the Tenth, saw hard fighting at Santiago, and is now lame from wounds received there. Col. Hall has been on duty at West Point for four years, and both these officers are now going out for the first time to the Philippines. The three were entertained at dinner at the Hawaiian Hotel last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Lake.

COUSINS' SOCIETY JUBILEE IN MAY

At the monthly meeting of the Cousins' Society Saturday night, at the residence of Theodore Richards, arrangements were perfected for celebrating the society's golden jubilee in May. There will be two meetings. The first will be the annual meeting on Saturday, May 17, followed on the Thursday after by literary exercises. The committee to look after the second event is composed of Miss Hyde, Rev. W. D. Westervelt and Mrs. J. B. Atherton. The next day there will be a lawn party on the grounds of Theo. Richards'. On the committee for this are Mrs. and Mrs. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham and Mrs. Gulick. Mrs. Emerson used the organization of a junior branch, to be managed by young people.

Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Weaver were appointed a committee to consider the matter. Dr. Alexander, a missionary in Japan for twenty-five years, made a short address.

Rev. O. H. Gulick, president, and Mrs. Gulick; Lorin Andrews, recording secretary; Rev. and Mrs. O. P. Emerson, Rev. and Mrs. J. Leadingham, Rev. T. T. Alexander, D. D., Rev. W. D. Westervelt, Prof. W. D. Alexander, Dr. Clark, Prof. C. J. Lyons, J. B. Atherton, Mrs. J. H. Richards, Robert W. Andrews, A. F. Cooke and Misses Cooke, W. C. Weedon, Mrs. Weaver, Miss Flaxman, Miss Hyde, Miss Barlow, Miss Talcott, Miss Stokes and Mr. Stokes.

Merchants' Association Report

The committee of the Merchants' Association appointed to confer with the Chamber of Commerce and Board of Health in connection with safeguarding the health of the city, reported favorable progress Saturday at a meeting of the association. The committee was recommended to pursue the work in hand. The report was to the effect that the sanitary condition of Honolulu was better than it has been before. It was suggested that a part of the 15 cents per ton exaction now imposed on importers for reimbursing such firms as advanced money to construct the Quarantine wharf, be used to assist the Health Department in city sanitation. The matter was discussed, but laid over until the next meeting.
